LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

To the 1966 Annual Staff goes my deepest thanks for their help on the yearbook. To put together a book like this, takes a lot of time, worry, and hard work. One person can not do it alone.

I want to wish Cindy Dunn luck on next year's yearbook and thank her for all the work she did on this year's yearbook. I want to thank Ed Belles for taking some of the pictures, and Powell Studios for taking the larger group shots. I especially want to thank Mr. Grahek, our advisor, for all the hard work and extra time that he put in on this yearbook.

Again thank-you.

DEPTH

With Coach Wilson at the helm and many outstanding boys returning, this year could very well be a big one for Breckenridge track. Last year there were many fine performances by underclassmen. The boys distinguished themselves on many levels of competition. Couple talent with desire, pride, sportsmanship, and fine coaching, and Breckenridge High will have one more reason to feel that the whole school is moving forward.

The staff of the BRECKSONIAN says, "Go, Huskies! Add one more trophy to the collection."

Coach Wilson discusses plans for the season while Dennis Wolfgang checks to be sure of the dates.

AND ON STAGE

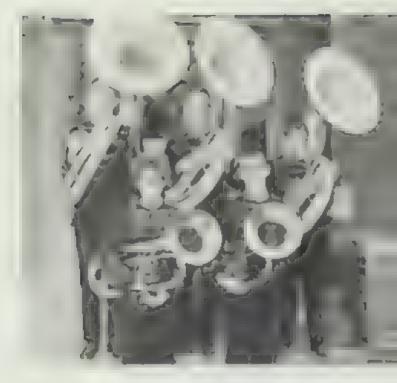

The BHS Senior Band had another year full of activities. Following an early start of marching season at band camp, the band performed not only at the home games but also at the Merrill game. Besides putting on these football shows the band travelled to Chesaning for the Annual Parade of Bands and to U. of M. for Band Day. To finish marching season the band combined with the lumin Band and intermediate band in rands on Review which was climaxed by the Senior Band's famous "Light Show".

The band opened concert season by participating in the Thanksgiving assembly. After the Annual Christmas Concert and the Christmas assembly, the band began to prepare for Band Festival.

Many of the individuals in the band were busy playing in pep band for basketball games, preparing for competition in Solo and Ensemble Festival, and playing or singing in the operetta. The band finished the year with the Annual Spring Concert, Band Awards Banquet, Memorial Day Parade, and Graduation.
